"It is observed by the Committee that several new writs are being filed before the Hon'ble Delhi High Court seeking issuance of restoration orders in matters which have either been remanded back by Appellate committee of NCTE or where withdrawal order has been quashed by court order.

The Committee noted that in the matter of Arihant College & Anr v NCTE vide order dated 30.07.2021, the Hon'ble Delhi High Court has issued the following directions:

"7. As several petitions for substantially similar relief are being filed in this Court, it is further directed that, whenever a withdrawal order is challenged by an institution (either by way of appeal or by way of writ proceedings) and the matter is remanded to the concerned regional committee, the regional committee will issue an order of restoration of recognition in favour of the institution, pending reconsideration of the withdrawal order. Although the Appellate Committee of the NCTE would be well advised to expressly quash the original order of the concerned regional committee while remanding the matter, the position in law is that the order automatically stands quashed. The institution is, therefore, entitled to the benefits of recognition until a fresh withdrawal order is passed. The order of restoration of recognition should be issued within two weeks of the order of remand being communicated to the regional committee, or upon request of the concerned institution. This streamlined procedure would obviate the multiplicity of litigation which is being witnessed at present. Neither the concerned institutions nor the NCTE should be put to the burden of filing or defending proceedings before the Court for this purpose."

In view of the above, the Committee unanimously resolved that in all such matters where the case is remanded back by the Appellate Authority or through the orders of the Court, the Regional Director is hereby authorized to issue restoration order pending re-consideration of the withdrawal order, subject to ratification by the Committee in the ensuing meeting".
