Nealy four years have gone by and it is not feasible to resurrect or restart the approval process of the year 2017. It will therefore be more appropriate if the petitioner makes a fresh application to the second respondent seeking for recognition for M.Ed course. While making such application, it will also be left open to the petitioner to give a representation along with the application by taking a specific stand as to why the basis of rejection in the year 2017, is not in accordance with the regulations.
