College Vs National Council for Teacher Education &amp; ANR" inter-alia directed the SRC to pass the order of restoration in favour of the petitioner institution. The operative part of the order reads as under:- "5. Having heard learned Senior Counsel for the Petitioner and counsel for the Respondents and looking to the fact that as of today the deficiencies that remain to be cured, even according to the Respondents are: (a) approved list of faculties; and (b) BCC. Petitioner is right in submitting that the withdrawal order was not communicated by the Respondents and despite best efforts, Mr. Rupal is unable to establish that communication was sent. It is trite that no order can be enforced until it is communicated to the effected party. This Court also finds merit in the contention of the Petitioner that there are serious discrepancies in the deficiencies/shortcomings pointed out in the show cause notices
